A new journal

Springer Seminars in Immunopathology

Title No. 281

Editors-in-Chief: P.A. Miescher, Geneva, Switzerland; H.J. Mueller-Eberhard, La Jolla, Cal., USA

Advisory Board: B. Benacerraf, Boston, USA; M.D. Cooper, Birmingham, USA; K. Eichmann, Heidelberg, Germany; G. Klein, Stockholm, Sweden; H.G. Kunkel, New York, USA; P. Lachmann, Cambridge, Great Britain; P.H. Lambert, Geneva, Switzerland, J.B. Natvig, Oslo, Norway

The aim of this new journal is to bring clinicians and pathologists up-to-date on developments in the field of immunopathology. At the present time, immunopathology is dealt with by over fifteen periodicals, which makes it very difficult for physicians interested in this subject to keep abreast of all pertinent developments.

Springer-Seminars in Immunopathology, is thus responding to an urgent need of those readers wishing to follow the rapid progress made in this important field.

For this purpose topical issues will be organized usually with the help of a guest editor. Recent developments will be summarized in review articles by authors who have personally contributed to the specific topic. The pertinent literature will be given at the end of each paper, not in an exhaustive way but so that the interested reader may easily orient himself by studying the key references.

No. 1	Immunogenetics I	Guest Editor: Baruj Benacerraf
No. 2	Immunogenetics II	Guest Editor: Baruj Benacerraf
No. 3	Immune Deficiency	Guest Editor: Max Cooper
No. 4	Immunostimulation	Guest Editor: L. Chedid
